

Note 1 - An amateur artist is one who creates art as a pastime, does not have a degree in art, or is self taught or has participated in adult classes for personal knowledge.

Note 2 - Original work is the creation of the artist, not copied from other artists work or photographs of the same, not copied from printed pictures, and not from kits or paint by number pages.

Note 3 - Each piece is to be labeled by a 3x5 card attached to the back with the following information: Artist's name, address, phone number, title of work, price, SA or NFS.

Note 4 - When checking in, notify us if someone else will be picking up your work.

Judges or show committee may disqualify a work if it does not meet requirements of stated rules. Due to the public nature of this show, the Danville Art League reserves the right to make final judgment on the display of any work.

All reasonable effort will be made to protect each work exhibited; however, the Danville Art League will not be responsible for loss or damage.

The Danville Art League is sponsoring the 2020 Town and Country Amateur Art Show to be held April 14 through May 1 at the Danville Art League building, 320 Franklin, Danville, Illinois.

The Art League is pleased to present visual art to the public, and to foster creativity while having the opportunity to acquaint the public with the Danville Art League and it's activities.

This is a show for AMATEURS. It is open to amateur artists who have not participated in any other Town and Country show this year.

Two divisions: an ADULT DIVISION and a JUNIOR DIVISION for those 18 and under.

April 14 through May 1
